

Don Bruning Legacy of Dedication Scholarship Award

$500 Scholarship Award

We are thrilled to introduce the Don Bruning Legacy of Dedication Scholarship Award, an exciting opportunity exclusively for our young high school members at Great Erie Credit Union.

Named after Don Bruning, a retired Orchard Park High School math teacher, who selflessly dedicated 52 years of volunteer service within our credit union. Don not only contributed his expertise as an educator but also served admirably on the volunteer Board of Directors. This scholarship is a testament to Don's unwavering commitment, embodying the values of dedication, volunteerism and education.

We aim to celebrate and honor his outstanding contributions by providing this unique scholarship opportunity to our high school members, encouraging them to pursue their academic aspirations and community involvement with the same spirit of dedication that Don Bruning exemplified throughout his remarkable tenure.

Scholarship Essay

To be considered for the Don Bruning Legacy of Dedication Scholarship Award, applicants are required to submit an essay that reflects their commitment to dedication, education and volunteerism. The essay should address the following three questions:

1. Dedication (200 words): Reflect on a personal experience that required dedication and perseverance. This could be a long-term project, a challenging academic pursuit, or a commitment to a cause. Explain how this experience has shaped your character and influenced your goals for the future.
2. Education (200 words): Discuss the role of education in your life and how you envision it contributing to your future endeavors. Highlight any specific academic achievements, challenges overcome, or a teacher/mentor who has significantly influenced your educational journey.

3. Volunteerism (200 words): Share a meaningful volunteer experience that has impacted your understanding of community service. Describe the skills or lessons you gained through this experience and how you plan to continue contributing to your community through volunteerism in the future.

Applicants are encouraged to provide specific examples, personal anecdotes and thoughtful reflections in response to each question. The essay should not exceed a total of 750 words. Your thoughtful responses will be instrumental in the selection process for the Don Bruning Legacy of Dedication Scholarship, honoring a legacy that values dedication, education and volunteerism.
